A BRIEF BACKGROUND—Along this section of U.S. #40, restaurants had discriminated repeatedly against African diplomats traveling between the United Nations and the U.S. Capital. The situation became so embarrassing internationally, that President Kennedy and the State Department interceded. Nevertheless, the incidents of discrimination continued. As a result, CORE initiated a Freedom Motorcade scheduled for November 11 for which over 1400 persons volunteered. Three days before, the majority of restaurant owners along U.S. #40 agreed to desegregate. The Motorcade was called off. Subsequent CORE tests proved that almost all restaurants under the agreement, plus some that were not, are now serving without discrimination. However, a sizable number of restaurants are still holding out. Help us finish the job!

1. PATRONIZE those restaurants which now serve everybody, regardless of color. (See list on reverse side.)

2. BOYCOTT those restaurants which still practice racial discrimination.

3. CHALLENGE SEGREGATION. If you are traveling in an interracial or all-Negro group, you can help additionally by challenging segregation at one of the discriminatory restaurants:

- Try to enter and sit at a table.
- If stopped at the door, remain standing there.
- Stay until the owner reads the trespass law in the presence of police.
- Then, leave under protest if you are NOT prepared to face arrest.
- Remain, only if you are fully prepared to face arrest on a jail, no bail, basis.
- BE COURTEOUS AND STAY NONVIOLENT THROUGHOUT, NO MATTER WHAT THE PROVOCATION.
- Whatever happened, report it to CORE's national office.
